Dessert Wine Selection

Glass

61 Chateau Laville, Sauternes €12
Think of the ripest bunch of raisined grapes squeezed into your glass; deliciously sweet, but not cloying with a kick of lemony freshness.

62 Domaine de Barroubio Petit Muscat, Languedoc-Roussillon €10
This sweet St Jean de Minervois Muscat is fresh, intensely fruity with great charm. A delicate nose floral aroma, and sweet pear and peach fruit Flavors, with a hint of citrus.

63 Masi Angelorum Recioto Classico €14
The historic, red dessert wine of the Valpolicella region. The ancient traditional grapes, Corvina, Rondinella and Molinara, are picked in hillside sites to be laid out for Appassimento on bamboo racks in drying lofts during the winter months. The grapes shrink in the drying process to make aromatic, fruity wines that are smooth and refined, with a wonderful balance of alcohol, sugar and structure.

Port Wine Selection

Glass

Graham's "Six Grapes" Reserve Ruby Port €9
Six Grapes is a youthful, bright, and complex reserve port. Known for its finesse, Six Grapes is full-bodied and marked by its fresh aromas of blackberry, liquorice and cassis. Generous black fruit flavours on the palate make it perfect for pairing with dark chocolate.

Ferreira 'Dona Antonia', "10 Years Old" White Port

€9

Fantastic and intense bouquet, where tropical fruits predominate pairing with some citric notes. It's wonderfully integrated with balsamic notes and spices, and it exudes delicious fragrances of white figs that gives it an incredible freshness to the all set. Ferreira is the oldest Portuguese Port house and remains the leader in the domestic market.

Graham's "20 Years Old" Tawny Port

€13

On the nose, it shows an excellent bouquet with a characteristic 'nutty' character and delicious mature fruit with hints of orange peel, exquisitely mellowed by careful ageing. On the palate, it is rich, softly sweet and smooth, perfectly balanced, with a long and elegant finish.

Graham's "2000" Vintage Port

€13

This Vintage Port displays many of the typical Graham aromas of ripe plum and 'esteva' (gum cistus) and is pleasantly smooth on the palate despite its youth. It is full and rich in the mouth with fresh blackberry and red plum.

Special Vintage Selection by the Glass

- 91 1962 Cote-Rotie Les Jumelles, Paul Jaboulet €40
The wine is matured for 12 months in oak barrel, with 20% new barrels used. The bouquet is floral, offering notes of red berries or even violet. On the palate, the finish is long, beautiful and harmonious.
- 92 1978 Hermitage, E. Guigal €33
Wine almost seems more about the sandalwood, warm earth, meaty notes than the pretty wild raspberry and quince notes which are seamlessly woven.
- 93 1982 Hermitage La Chapelle, Paul Jaboulet €40
Dark plums and dark cherries are vibrant. This is not an overpowering fruit bomb but rather a subtle and complex wine that demands careful attention. Notes of forest floor, leather, very subdued tannins and great complexity. Good acidity and fruity notes made it an outstanding wine.
- 95 2008 Gevrey Chambertin Vieilles Vignes, Domaine Fourrier, Cote de Nuits €22
Medium cherry colour with pale meniscus; focused, tart red fruit, sous bois, roses, charcoal nose; tasty, poised, tart red fruit, tart cherry, mineral palate with medium acidity.
- 96 2011 Gevrey Chambertin Vieilles Vignes, Domaine Fourrier, Cote de Nuits €28
Green leaves on the nose. Sour cherries with spices sitting behind. Develops into ash, smoke.

97 2012 Gevrey Chambertin Vieilles Vignes, Domaine Fourrier, Cote de Nuits €26

Light, earthy, and tangy with excellent black cherry fruit, an emerging top note of citrus peel, and some botanical herbs for complexity.
